

As an Indiana consumer who has opted-in to the State Attorney General 'do-not-call' list, I am strongly concerned about any potential weakening of the Indiana law. I am a firm believer that all marketing contacts should be initiated through a self-regulated opt-in process. To that end, the Indiana law should not interfere with the functional Indiana law.